Dent Mowrey is considered by many competent persons to be one of the most brilliant pianist of the day. His numbers brought forth unstinted applause for the young artist—Philadelphia Evening Telegram.—Burns people may hear Mr. Mowrey, at the Levens October 19. Mrs. A. H. Carter has recently purchased the residence property on Main Street just north of the Geo. Hagey residence; from R. J. McKinnon. She and her daughter have taken possession of the property and Mrs. Carter is now more centrally located to care for her customers in the line of sewing. E. A. Wyld, associated with the First National Bank of Portland, and Hamilton Corbett were guests at the Hanley ranch during the fore part of this week. Mr. Wyld came out to see this big country for the first time in order to better know a territory where his banking concern does quite a large business. Chas. Wilson arrived home from Salem the early part of this week. He went down particularly to secure some blooded stock and incidentally took in part of the state fair. Mr. Wilson brought back a young Red Polled bull and a Duroc Red Boar. Both are prize winner and reported to be fine animals.
